

Reporting Animal Care and Use Concerns

For immediate animal welfare concerns:

Provide a complete description of issue to:

LARC On-Call Veterinarian/Attending Veterinarian

Phone: 415-502-8687

And/Or

IACUC Office & Chair

Phone: 415-476-2197; Fax: 415-502-7991

Email: iacuc@ucsf.edu

You may also report concerns to:

UCSF Whistleblower Program

University-wide confidential reporting hotline: 1-800-403-4744

Online: University-wide confidential

<https://secure.ethicspoint.com/domain/media/en/gui/23531/index.html>

For non-urgent animal welfare concerns:

Complete a UCSF Animal Care and Use Concerns Reporting Form:

Form:

- www.iacuc.ucsf.edu
- and at all LARC facilities

Submit:

- email to iacuc@ucsf.edu
- or hard copy to LARC personnel

Reports may be made anonymously or you may ask for confidentiality.

The UCSF Institutional Animal Care and Use Committee (IACUC), in conjunction with a veterinarian, will investigate all concerns regarding the care and treatment of animals used in research or teaching at UCSF.

The Animal Welfare Act regulations and University policy prohibit discrimination or reprisal against any person for reporting potential violations of any regulation or standard.