

Use of Green Surgical Tags Required

Find green tags in the animal room

Place them on the cage after surgery and leave them there for 7 – 14 days

This helps LARC daily care and vet care staff know there are animals of special concern that may deserve a closer look during health checks.

